grees, Dec. 18, 1811, said,
While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with entisfection the danntless spirit of fortitude victo riously displayed by every description of troops engaged, as teel as the collected firmners which distinguished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline

James Manison in his message to Congress, Nov. 1812, said,

An ample force from the States of Kentucky Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with of Brigadier Gen. HARRISON, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not loss distinguished by their political stations than by their, personal morits.

In Mr. Manison's message of Dec. 1813, the compliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Eric having opened a passage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com-manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the ither, and, rapidly pursuing the hestile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the eapture of the British, and dispersion of the savage

Sentiments of the Hero of Fort Stephenson,

Col. Croghan, now of the War Department: "I de-ire no plaudits which are bestowed upon me at the expense of Gen. Harrison.

"I have felt the warmest attachment for him as a man, and my confidence in him as no able commander remains unshaken. I feel every assurance that he will at all times do me ample justice; and nothing could give me more pain than to see his enemics seize upon this occasion to deal out their un-friendly feelings and acrimonious dislike; and as long as he continues, (as in my humble opinion he has hitherto done,) to make the wisest arrangements and the most judicious disposition, which the forces under his command will justify, I shall not hesitate missions to the persons herein named, to each reconfidence which he so richly merits, and which has on no occasion been withheld."

Lastly we come to the neat compliment of Thomas Richie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Coalition in the South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless word with two broken points," and threatens devastating war upon the conquorer of the British and Indian Coalition of the West!
